Artisan Partners Construction Services announced it is providing construction management services for the 1,500-square-foot build-out of the new location for Eduardo DePandi's new Italian clothing store, DePandi at 5518 Wisconsin Avenue, Chevy Chase, Md. The store is located across from Saks Fifth Avenue and specializes in ready-to-wear Italian menswear and custom-made bespoke tailoring by Eduardo DePandi.

Prill Construction Group is serving as general contractor.

DePandi, previously known as Bruno Cipriani, is relocating from the now closed White Flint Mall. The new store is scheduled to open mid-October 2013.

Artisan is providing construction management services for the design, permitting, and oversight of work through completion.

For 28 years, owner Eduardo DePandi has provided services as a master tailor for custom-made men's suits and separates as well as offering ready-made apparel by several top quality Italian designers including Versace, Dolcepunta, Mabro and Italo Ferretti. The store also carries an extensive line of ready-to-wear and custom-made shirts as well as shoes and accessories.

"We are very pleased to be managing the build-out of the new location of this outstanding Washington area men's clothier," said Geoff Azaroff, Artisan Partners Principal.
