Commercial Roofing & Sheet Metal Selected as Contractor

Artisan Partners Construction Services announced the start of a major project to remove and replace the roofing systems at Colonial Village Shopping Center on Wilson Blvd. in the Rosslyn section of Arlington.

Commercial Roofing & Sheet Metal of Cheverly, Md. has been selected as the contractor for the project at the 23,000-square-foot retail center.

Artisan will oversee the all work done on the project, including the removal of the current roof and implementation of the new roofing systems. The work is being performed on behalf of the retail center’s property management company, Rock Creek Enterprises LLC (www.rcgdc.com (<http://www.rcgdc.com>)).

About Colonial Village Shopping Center:

The Colonial Village Shopping Center was constructed in 1936 for the residents of Colonial Village and the surrounding neighborhood of Clarendon. The commercial building was an integral part of a major real estate venture known as Colonial Village, which was undertaken by nationally renowned developer, Gustave Ring. Today the shopping center provides a balanced mix of everyday services and restaurants, along with ample off-street parking.

About Artisan Partners:

Founded in 2008, Artisan Partners (www.artisanpartners.us) provides construction management and owner representation services to a number of varied clients; including business owners, corporations, country clubs, developers, hotels, schools, religious institutions, and trade associations. From start to finish, Artisan Partners oversees projects through all phases of development, design, and construction.
